2. Characteristic spirit and general objectives of the school

Burnchurch National School is a Catholic co-educational primary school with a Catholic ethos. The Bishop of Ossory is the Patron of this school.

'Catholic schools are communities which are open, welcoming and inclusive. Therefore, Catholic schools may include children who adhere to other religions or other stances for living. While mindful of their duty to educate in the distinctive beliefs, values, and practices of the Catholic community, teachers will bear witness to an attitude of respect for and appreciation of all'. 'The Catholic Preschool & Primary Religious Education Curriculum p15'

Catholic Ethos' in the context of a Catholic primary school means the ethos and characteristic spirit of the Roman Catholic Church, which aims at promoting:

- the full and harmonious development of all aspects of the person of the pupil, including the intellectual, physical, cultural, moral and spiritual aspects; and
- a living relationship with God and with other people; and

- a philosophy of life inspired by belief in God and in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus; and the formation of the pupils in the Catholic faith,
- and which school provides religious education for the pupils in accordance with the doctrines, practices and traditions of the Roman Catholic Church, and/or such ethos and/or characteristic spirit as may be determined or interpreted from time to time by the Irish Episcopal Conference.

In accordance with S.15 (2) (b) of the Education Act, 1998 the Board of Management of Burnchurch National school shall uphold, and be accountable to the patron for so upholding, the characteristic spirit of the school as determined by the cultural, educational, moral, religious, social, linguistic and spiritual values and traditions which inform and are characteristic of the objectives and conduct of the school.

The aim of our school is to create a welcoming, secure and caring environment which facilitates the nurturing of each pupil's full potential. The achievement of this aim informs all of the planning processes and activities in our school.

We endeavour to provide as broad a schedule of activities for our children as possible in order to give each child every opportunity to develop their own unique talents. We encourage every pupil to engage fully with the curriculum as our dedicated teachers and staff work together with parents/guardians to ensure each child is afforded the opportunity to learn and grow. Teachers and parents share the same aim as partners in education – the wellbeing of the children in our care.
